

Ten Reasons To Choose Calabria

Have you ever dreamed about living the dolce vita in Italy, drinking your morning cappuccino by the sparkling Mediterranean and thinking of nothing more stressful than wondering which type of pasta to try today?

Calabria is unique. It is fast becoming the most sought-after place in Italy for second homeowners as it is still untouched by mass tourism and prices are low. Here are 10 more reasons to buy your place in the sun in Calabria – get there before everyone else does!

1. In a recent Observer newspaper article, Calabria was described as “the place to buy property in Italy. It’s like the Bahamas with all its stunning beaches.”
2. Not to be outdone, the Sunday Times named Tropea as its number one beach destination
3. High mountains mean that in winter, you can ski and snowboard
4. Calabria is blessed with a microclimate which means that winters are mild and summers are always long and hot
5. The Calabrians do the best pasta in Italy!
6. Culture vultures will love the classical Greek sites, Norman castles and Byzantine churches
7. It’s easy to get there - Ryanair flies directly from Stansted year-round while Thomson flies to Calabria in the summer months. You can also get there easily via Rome and Milan
8. Foodies will love to discover Tartufo, a world famous ice cream dish which originates in Pizzo Calabro, a small town near Tropea
9. Fancy a trip to a volcano? Both Mount Etna and Stromboli are just a short boat trip away
10. Low prices - apartments from only €61,900

